COELHO GETS A NEW TRIAL

ESCAPES THROUGH A NARROW LOOPHOLE.

The Failure of a Juror to Take the Oath Gives the Ex-Police Clerk Another Show.

In a lengthy decision handed down this afternoon the Supreme Court has granted a new trial to W. J. Coelho, the ex-police clerk who was recently convicted of embezzling public funds, and sentenced to two years at hard labor on the reef. The grounds upon which the new trial is allowed are that one of the jurors who sat in the case had not taken the oath to support the Constitution, laws and government of the Republic, and that the fact was not discovered by either Coelho or his attorney until after the verdict was rendered.

The second grounds upon which a new trial was asked, that the demurrer to the charges and motion to quash, has been improperly overruled, were held by the Supreme Court, to be without merit, so that the new trial has been granted practically upon a mere technicality.

KUAKINI STREET REPAIRS.

Complaint has been made as to the condition of Kuakini street, where the ruts are said to be hub deep. The section referred to fronts on the Valley Tennis club court, which is reached with difficulty on account of the condition of the street. The street has been twice repaired within the last two years between Nuuanu street and the bridge, but never beyond the bridge since it was opened. It is now claimed that the travel in that direction is more than enough to warrant the immediate attention of the Superintendent of Street Work.

KANUI GETS A FINE.

Kanui, the Mormon Kahuna, who quacked a child at Iwili in such a manner as to cause her death, was found guilty in the police court yesterday of practicing medicine without a license and was sentenced to pay a fine of $250 and court costs. In a word to the prisoner the Judge congratulated him upon the fact that the charge of manslaughter had been withdrawn by the Marshal, for, said his honor, the court believed that the treatment of the accused caused the death of the child.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Drawing Teacher Resigns—Normal School Becoming Crowded.

The resignation of Miss Beekwith as teacher of drawing in the schools of Honolulu, was accepted by the Board of Education at a regular meeting yesterday. The Board decided to try to find a new teacher without going abroad, and it is likely that some nominations will be made at the next meeting.

The application of Miss Atkinson for a life certificate was granted on the ground that she had taught in the primary grade for ten years, and has an average of 92 per cent in her examinations.

The proposition of Inspector General Townsend to hold school examinations three times a year did not meet with the approval of the Board. But one examination will be held.

The crowded condition of the Normal school, according to Inspector Gibson's report, would soon necessitate the employment of an assistant teacher. There are 46 pupils on the roll this year, as against 20 last year. The application of Miss Flora Perry to be transferred from Beretania to some other school, was considered.

THURM-SISSON.

The marriage of Mr. F. Wm. Thurm and Miss Nellie Sisson took place at the residence of Mr. J. P. Sisson on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The house was artistically decorated with bamboo and chrysanthemums and it presented a beautiful appearance. Rev. Stephen Desha was the officiating clergyman, and the ceremony was performed according to the impressive service of the Episcopal church.

FOUR BUSHELS A LETTER.

William H. Wallace, postmaster at Hammondsville, Ohio, where he had served forty years, died recently. He was 86 years of age. He was a postmaster when it cost four bushels of oats, or four pounds of butter, to send a letter from Ohio to New York. He had a large collection of autographs and pictures of prominent men, and a few days before his death he wrote to the Postmaster General for his signature and likeness. Mr. Gary replied with a kindly letter that arrived just after the old man's demise. He was the oldest postmaster by age and service in the United States.

A RICH BLUE JACKET.

The United States cruiser Olympia is credited with having in her crew a son of Sir John Coventry, baronet, of England. It is stated that he has just come into the possession of $10,000 a year. The young sailor has been on the cruiser Charleston and was transferred to the Olympia before she had strated from San Francisco for the Orient.

Worth It.

Edwin Forrest, the renowned tragedian, was showing a "super" how to do a small part, and at last exclaimed, in despair: "Can't you do it as I do?" "No," said the super, "if I could, do you suppose I would be working for five dollars a week?"

This illustrates the trouble with the low prices of many articles of furniture. If they were well made do you think they would be offered at kindling wood prices?

It is our desire to offer you goods at prices that are consistent with the quality, and we take pride in scouring the Eastern markets for the
